TRIP DETAIL:

At 8:30 a.m., our driver and guide will meet you at the Tien Sa port gate, where your name will be displayed on a welcome board.

At 8:50 a.m., you will start your tour at the Linh Ung Pagoda, which is home to one of the highest statues of the Lady Buddha in Vietnam.

10:00 a.m.: You'll continue your tour of the Marble Mountains, which are five mountains made of marble and limestone that bear the names of the five elements—earth, fire, water, metal, and wood—found in the old eastern philosophy. There is an intricate network of caverns and tunnels in these mountains.

12:00 p.m.: Eat lunch at a nearby local restaurant

Afternoon 1:30 p.m.: Travel to Hoi An Ancient Town, which was formerly a significant commerce hub for Southeast Asia during the 16th and 17th centuries. It is essentially a living museum including traditional architecture from the era.

Chinese temples, a bridge with Japanese architectural design, pagodas, wooden shop houses, French colonial homes, and historic canals are a few of the city's well-known historical structures.

The main features that entice visitors to this charming town are Hoi An's delicious food, exciting shopping, talented tailors, kind locals, and cozy ambiance.
